THE FRENCH CUFF

Galerie Bertin-Toublanc, a long established Parisian gallery will introduce its newest 17,000-square-foot address in the Wynwood Art District, on December 4. The gallery offers multiple spaces for solo exhibits and plans to bring leading contemporary artists to Miami including Indian artist, Baba Anand (his pink Cadillac dressed in Swarovski crystals will be on prominent display), Great Britain's Mauro Perucchetti and French photographer Philippe Chevallier. —Megan Aquilino
