➔ ART GALLERIES

Tastes, Sounds, Sights, Sensations

Galerie Bertin-Toublanc, a Parisian art gallery, is opening their first U.S. gallery with an extravagant bash on Dec. 4 in the Wynwood Design District. Cutting-edge artists from around the world showing their works at the gallery's launch include India's Baba Anand, England's Mauro Perucchetti, France's Supakitch and Philippe Chevallier, and China's Liu Bolin. Guests explore the gallery through its several twists and turns, taking their senses on a world tour through the visions of the gallery's international artists. Each exhibit characterizes the artist and his origin through various senses of tastes, sounds, sensations, and sights. 2534 N. Miami Ave., Wynwood Art District, Miami.
